

establishing his right to such contested seat.

Electors of President and Vice-President.

- 136. Date of election of electors of president and vice-president.
- 137. Qualification of voters.
- 138. Tie vote.
- 139. Election of electors, how conducted.
- 140. Vacancies in the college of electors, how filled.
- 141. Meeting of electors.

Representatives in Congress.

- 142. Election of congressmen
- 143. How vacancies in Congress shall be filled.

Congressional Districts

- 144. State shall be divided into six congressional districts
- 145. Counties composing first district
- 146. Counties composing second district.
- 147. What wards of Baltimore city compose the third district.
- 148. What wards of Baltimore city compose the fourth district.
- 149. Counties composing fifth district.
- 150. Counties composing sixth district.
- 151. Separate election returns.
- 152. Appointment of supervisors before the passage of this act to be valid.
- 153. This article to become effective, when. Proviso.

Supervisors of Elections.

1896, ch. 202.

1. The Governor shall biennially appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, if in session, and if not in session, then the Governor alone shall appoint, in each and every county of the State, and in the city of Baltimore, three persons, who shall constitute and be styled "the Boards of Supervisors of Elections, of the respective counties and of said city." Said supervisors shall be residents and voters in their respective counties, or in the city of Baltimore, as the case may be; and two of them shall always be selected from the two leading political parties of the State, one from each of said parties. They shall be men of high character and integrity, and of recognized business capacity. Before appointing such supervisors of elections, the Governor shall request the State Central Committees, representing each of the two leading political parties of the State, in each county and in said city, as the case may be, to designate at least four eligible candidates for the position of supervisors of elections in their respective counties and in said city; and the Governor shall appoint one of the persons so designated, for any particular county, or for said city, unless in his judgment, all of said per-