

ceding, the applicant claiming to be naturalized has been a registered voter in this State, and has actually voted on such previous registration; but they shall note his answers to the questions, when and in what court he was naturalized, and also in the column headed "remarks," where and when he was so previously registered. (k.) Under the column "court," the designation of the court in which, if naturalized, such naturalization was had. (l.) Under the column "qualified voter," the word "yes," if the fact shall appear or be determined by a majority of the board of registry, or the word "no," if such fact be not established to the satisfaction of a majority of the board. (m.) Under the column "date of application," the month, day and year when the applicant presented himself. (n.) After the answers of the applicant to the questions under the heads of each and all of the above-mentioned columns have been properly entered by the officers, in his presence, in both registers, and not until then, he must sign his name upon the same line under the column "signature," in each of them, unless he shall state his inability to do so, in which case the officers shall make the entry "cannot write," in the places for said signature. The board of registry shall be entitled to receive from the officers having custody thereof the last preceding registration books, for the purpose of comparison and assistance in identification; and if any one shall apply for registration who appears in such former registry as disqualified, his name shall be entered in the new registers, but he shall be marked "disqualified," unless such grounds of disqualification shall have been removed. At the end of the day's registry said officers shall compare the two registers so kept, and cause any errors in either of them to be corrected, by aid of the entries in the other, so as to make the same agree where there is any difference between them. Each of the said officers having the custody of one of said registers shall then sign his name or initials immediately under the last name registered under each letter in the book kept by him, so that no new name can be added without discovery. The said board of registry shall keep, on blanks to be provided for that purpose by the board of supervisors of elections, an alphabetical list of the names, addresses and color of all persons registered, and a separate list of all persons refused registration, and of all persons whose names are erased from the
