If qualified voters so noted as dead or removed are not dead or have not removed, their names shall stand, but if any person so notified does not appear at such session and show cause why his name should not be erased, the board shall during the last hour of such session, cause his name to be erased and marked as disqualified, dead or removed as the case may be, unless a majority of the board are satisfied, of their own knowledge, or upon competent evidence, that such person is entitled to have his name retained on the registry; and under the head of "remarks" opposite each name erased, shall be stated the facts as to such erasure, the grounds and date of making the same, and the evidence on which it was made. The two registers shall then be compared and made to agree, where there is any difference, and such revision of the registry by said board of registry shall then be considered closed, and no other name can be added by said board, and a certificate of the number of qualified voters shall then be made and signed on the registers. The registers shall, by noon of the second day thereafter, be returned to the supervisors of elections, with the alphabetical list, as required in section 22.

1896, ch. 202.

Ibid.

32. Any person who feels aggrieved for any of the causes mentioned in section 23 of this article, which may have risen in the course of such revision, may file a petition as provided for the first general registration, and thereupon the same proceeding shall be had, and the same forms and methods shall be used as in case of similar petitions under the said section 23.
