

least four days before election day, and shall be subject to the inspection of the candidates and their agents. If any mistake be discovered, it shall be the duty of said supervisors to correct the same without delay ; and if said supervisors shall decline or refuse to make correction, then, upon the sworn petition of any qualified voter who would have the right to vote for such candidate at the approaching election, the circuit court for the county or one of the judges of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore city may, by order, require said supervisors of elections to correct such error, or to show cause why such error should not be corrected.

Wells v. Munroe, 86 Md. 447.

50. The form and arrangement of the ballots shall be as follows: All ballots shall contain the name of every candidate whose nomination for any office specified in the ballot has been certified to and filed according to the provisions of this article and not withdrawn in accordance herewith, and shall contain no other names, except that in the case of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, the names of the candidates for President and Vice-President may be added to the party or political designation, and the name of a city or county in which a candidate resides shall be added to the name of each candidate on ballots for State offices. The names of candidates nominated by each party shall be grouped together upon each ballot, and each group shall be headed by the name of the political party by which the candidates comprised in said group were placed in nomination, as described in the certificate of nomination. When the name of a political party is given in connection with the name of a candidate nominated as provided in section 38 of this article, it shall be stated on the ballot ; but if there shall have been any nomination for the same office by a convention or primary election claiming the same party name, duly certified, as hereinbefore provided, the word "independent" shall precede the party name if the candidate is nominated under the provisions of the said section 38. If the same party name or emblem shall be claimed on behalf of nominations made by more than one convention or primary election and duly certified, as aforesaid, the officers by whom the ballot is to be prepared, or a
