

precinct; or shall knowingly, wilfully or fraudulently interfere with, delay or hinder in any manner any judge or clerk of election in the discharge of his duties; or by any such means or other unlawful means, knowingly, wilfully or fraudulently counsel, advise, induce or attempt to induce any judge or clerk of election whose duty it is to ascertain, proclaim, announce or declare the result of any such election, to give or make any false certificate, document, report, return or other false evidence in relation thereto; or to refuse or neglect to comply with his duty, or to violate any law regulating the same; or to receive the vote of any person in any election district not entitled to vote therein; or to refuse to receive the vote of any person entitled to vote therein; or shall aid, counsel, advise, procure or assist any voter, person or judge of election or other officer of election to do any act by law forbidden, or in this article constituted an offense; or to admit to do any act by law directed to be done; every such person shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in jail or in the penitentiary, for not less than six months nor more than five years.

84. If any clerk of elections, or any person performing the duties of such clerk, shall wilfully keep a false poll-list, or shall knowingly insert in his poll-list any false statement, or any name or statement, or any check, alteration or mark, except as in this article provided, he shall, upon conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of a felony, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, for not less than one nor more than five years.

Ibid.

85. Every judge of election who shall wilfully exclude any vote duly tendered, knowing that the person offering the same is lawfully entitled to vote at such election, or shall wilfully receive a vote from any person who has been duly challenged in relation to his right to vote at such election, without exacting from such person such oath or other proof of qualification as may be required by law, or shall wilfully omit to challenge any person offering to vote, whom he knows or suspects to be not entitled to vote, and who has not been challenged; or shall wilfully refuse
