

adjudged guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, for not less than one nor more than five years.

1896, ch. 202.

88. If any judge or clerk of election or any officer of registration, revision, election or canvass of whom any duty is required in this article or by any other election law of this State, shall be guilty of any wilful neglect of such duty or any corrupt or fraudulent conduct or practice in the execution of the same, he shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in jail, for not less than thirty days nor more than three years, or by fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50), nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Ibid.

89. Every judge or clerk of election or other officer or person having the custody of any record, registry of voters or copy thereof, oath, return or statements of votes, certificate, poll list or any papers, documents, ballots, coupons or vote of any description in this article directed to be made, filed or preserved, who is guilty of concealing, wilfully destroying, mutilating, defacing, falsifying or fraudulently removing or secreting the whole or any part thereof, or who shall fraudulently make any entry, erasure or alteration therein, except as allowed and directed by the provisions of this article, or who permits any other person so to do, shall, upon conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of a felony, and shall be punished for each and every such offense by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than ten years.

Ibid.

90. Every person not an officer, such as is mentioned in the last preceding section, who is guilty of any of the acts specified in said last section, or who advises, procures or abets the commission of the same, or any of them, shall, upon conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of a felony, and for each and every such offense shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than ten years, and such offense shall be deemed to have been committed, whether such person
