

1896, ch. 202.

95. If during any registration of voters or revision thereof, or on any day of election or during the canvass of voters cast thereat or during any subsequent canvass of any board of canvassers, any person shall cause any breach of the peace or be guilty of any disorder, violence or threats of violence whereby any such registration, revision, election or canvass shall be impeded or hindered, or whereby the lawful proceedings of any officer or board of registration, or of any judge or clerk, or other officers of such election, or challenger or person designated to be present during the reception or canvass of any ballots, or of any canvassing board as hereinbefore provided, are interfered with, every such person shall upon conviction thereof be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by imprisonment in jail for not less than thirty days, nor more than one year, or by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Ibid.

96. If any person knowingly or wilfully shall obstruct, hinder or assault, or by bribery, solicitation or otherwise interfere with any officer of registration or any judge or clerk of election or challenger or person designated, as provided in this article, to be present at the reception or canvass of any ballots, in the performance of any duty required by him, or which he may by law, be authorized or permitted to perform, or if any person by any of the means before mentioned, or otherwise unlawfully shall, on any day of registration, revision of registration, or of election, hinder or prevent any officer of registration, judge or clerk of election, challenger or person designated as provided in this article, to be present at the reception or canvass of ballots, in his free attendance and presence at the place of registration or revision of registration, or of election in the election precinct, in and for which he is appointed or designated to serve, or in his full and free access and egress to and from any such place of registration, revision of registration or of election, or to and from any room where such registration, revision of registration or election or canvass of votes or making of any return and certificates thereof may be had, or shall molest, interfere with'
