

of elections shall audit his time and allow him compensation only for the time during which he has actually served.

Miscellaneous Provisions.

1896, ch. 202.

111. All oaths required by this article to be in writing, shall have a certificate of the officer taking the same, attached and signed by him, and said supervisors of elections, officers of registration and judges of election are hereby empowered to administer all oaths and affirmations required in the discharge of the duties of their respective offices.

Ibid.

112. The word "election," as used in this article, shall be construed to include elections had within any county or city for the purpose of enabling voters to choose some public officer or officers under the laws of this State, or of the United State, or to pass upon any amendment, law or other public act or proposition submitted to vote by law. The word "precinct," as used in this article, shall be construed to mean an election district in a county or an election precinct in such district, or in a ward of the city of Baltimore, as the case may be. In computing the times for notices to be given under this article, Sundays shall be included, except when the day on which said notice should be given, should happen to fall on Sunday, in which event the same shall be given on the Monday following; the day of giving the notice and the day of registration or election shall be excluded.

Ibid.

113. In all trials for offenses against any of the provisions of this article, or of any existing law relating to registration or elections, where such offense is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, the State and defense shall each be entitled to twenty peremptory challenges of jurors.

Ibid.

114. It shall be the duty of the Attorney-General, within three months after the adoption of this article, to prepare instructions and blank forms necessary for the use of the officers of registration and of election created by this article; and this article, with
