

said forms and instructions so prepared, and with other provisions of the Constitution and laws touching the same matters, and with a proper index thereto, shall be published by the Secretary of State, and shall be distributed by him to the supervisors of elections, in quantities sufficient to supply the judges of election and other officers requiring the same. The expense of printing shall be paid from the treasury of the State; and the sum of one thousand dollars per annum, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury for such printing, and for the employment of any necessary clerical help in preparing and attending to election business by this article assigned to the office of the Attorney-General and that of the Secretary of State. A price shall be fixed by the Secretary of State, at which copies may be furnished to purchasers.

114 A. At least thirty days before every State election the Attorney-General shall prepare full instructions for the guidance of the voters of such election as to obtaining ballots, as to the manner of marking them and the method of gaining assistance, and as to obtaining new ballots in the place of those accidentally destroyed, with such other instructions as shall, in his opinion, be necessary and proper. Said instructions shall be furnished by the Secretary of State to the several boards of supervisors of elections, who shall respectively cause the same, together with copies of sections 61, 62 and 63 of this article, to be printed in large, clear type, on separate cards, to be called "cards of instruction," and said boards of supervisors shall furnish twelve of the same with the ballots for use in each election precinct. They shall also cause to be printed on light card board or heavy-sized paper, ten or more copies of the form of the ballot provided for each voting place at each election therein, which shall be called "specimen ballots," and the same shall be furnished with the other ballots prepared for each voting place. On the morning of said election the said supervisors of elections shall cause to be conspicuously posted in each polling place, said cards of instruction and fac-simile ballots, and one of said cards of instruction shall be affixed in each booth or voting compartment, and the specimen ballots shall be conspicuously displayed in said polling
