

for the space of sixty days ; or any person who shall or may hereafter be committed to jail aforesaid for the non-payment of any fine and costs above one hundred and fifty and not exceeding five hundred dollars, who shall have remained in custody aforesaid for the space of ninety days ; or any person who shall or may hereafter be committed to jail aforesaid for the non-payment of any fine and costs above five hundred dollars, who shall have remained in custody aforesaid for the space of six months, shall be discharged from further imprisonment on account of said fine and costs.

1898, ch. 407.

4. One-half the fines imposed and recognizances forfeited to the circuit court for the several counties of the State shall be paid to the clerks of the respective courts, to be expended under the direction of the judge or judges of said courts for the augmentation of the libraries of said courts.

ARTICLE XXXVIII A.

FIRE MARSHAL.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. State Fire Marshal. Appointment, qualification, oath, bond, vacancy, how filled. 2. Duties of such officer. 3. Power of such officer to subpoena witnesses. Other powers. 4. Limit of expenses of office. Salary of fire marshal. Expenses allowed. | 5. Location of office. 6. Fire marshal to make reports to board of fire commissioners and county commissioners. 7. Fire insurance companies to report loss to fire marshal. |
|--|--|

1894, ch. 248.

1. The Governor of the State of Maryland shall, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, biennially appoint an officer to be known as the State fire marshal, who shall hold his office until his successor shall have been duly appointed and qualified ; he shall be a citizen of the State, and be subject to removal, for cause, at any time by the Governor ; and in the event of the death, resignation, refusal to act or removal of said