1892, ch. 78.

78 B. Any person violating the provisions of the foregoing section, upon indictment and conviction for the same in any circuit court for the county, or Criminal Court of Baltimore wherein the offense may have been committed, shall be fined not less than three hundred dollars and the cost of prosecution; and upon failure to pay the same shall be confined in the house of correction for not less than one year.

Ibid.

78 c. All fines collected under the two preceding sections shall be paid one-half to the informer and the other half into the treasury of the State of Maryland.

Commissioners of Fisheries.

1890, ch. 189.

89. The further sum of ten thousand dollars per annum, or so much thereof as may in the opinion of the Governor be necessary, is appropriated for the purpose of enabling said commissioners to carry out the provisions of sections eighty, eighty-one and eighty-seven, and the comptroller shall issue his warrant on the treasurer for the payment of said sum on requisition of said commissioners in such amounts as they may require, approved by the Governor out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated; and said fish commissioners shall annually render to the comptroller of the State for the inspection of the General Assembly, strict and accurate itemized accounts of all moneys received by them from the State, and of the disbursement or expenditure of the same with vouchers therefor; and the comptroller at each session of the General Assembly shall make a report thereof showing whether said fish commissioners have complied with the law.
