

sale, or any boat or vessel used in the prosecution of said fishing, of pound nets, fykes, haul seines, or other contrivances in the taking or catching of fish for sale."

1896, ch. 441.

93. The comptroller of the treasury shall cause to be printed and delivered to the clerk of the circuit courts for the several counties the requisite number of such blank licenses, and take receipt for the same, and for other licenses furnished; and said clerks shall, on the first Monday in July and December, of each year, return to the comptroller a list and account of such licenses issued by them, and at the end of each year shall return all unused blank licenses to him, and shall pay over to the comptroller all the moneys received by them for such license, which amount the said comptroller shall place to the credit of the "Oyster Fund."

Ibid.

94. It shall not be lawful for any person in taking fish for sale by the use of pound nets, fykes or other contrivances, now known or hereafter invented, to set such pound nets, fyke nets or other contrivances, now known or hereafter invented, in waters of the Chesapeake bay, within the jurisdictional limits of the State of Maryland, and below Pool's island, in the Chesapeake bay, at a greater length than 800 yards from low water mark; and any person violating this section shall, upon conviction thereof, before some justice of the peace of any county of this State most accessible, be fined the sum of not less than twenty or more than one hundred dollars, or shall forfeit said net or nets, together with the boats and tackles used in the violation of sections 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, of this article, or be subject to both fine and forfeiture, in the discretion of the justice of the peace trying the same; provided, that the party feeling aggrieved shall have the right of appeal as in other cases tried before justices of the peace; and provided further, that in case of appeal, the person appealing shall give to the State of Maryland a good and sufficient bond, covering double the amount of the fine or forfeiture, in case of forfeit, so as to secure to the State the amount of fine and forfeiture, in case he does not prosecute his appeal with effect.
