

1896, ch. 441.

95. Any non-resident of this State violating any of sections 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97 or 98 of this article, by the use of any pound net, fyke net, haul seine or other contrivance, now known or hereafter invented, in the taking or catching of fish, shall, on conviction thereof before some justice of the peace of any county of this State most accessible, forfeit said pound net, fyke net, haul seine or other contrivance, now used or hereafter invented for taking fish, together with all boats, vessels, and tackle used in the violation of any of said sections, or fined a sum of not less than fifty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars, or be subject to both fine and forfeiture, in the discretion of the justice of the peace trying the same, provided the person feeling aggrieved shall have the right of appeal to the circuit court for said county, under the provisions of the 94th section of this article.

Ibid.

96. It shall be the duty of the commander of the State fishery force to command the deputies under his charge, to see that the provisions of sections 90 to 99, inclusive, of this article, are not violated, and to arrest all persons found violating any provisions of sections 90 to 98, inclusive, of this article, and take the said offender or offenders to the nearest or most accessible justice of the peace of any of the counties of this State, to be dealt with according to law.

Ibid.

97. All fines collected by the justices of the peace, under the provisions of sections 90 to 98, inclusive, of this article, shall, within ten days thereafter, be paid to the clerk of the circuit court for the county in which the justice of the peace may reside, and by the said clerk be paid into the treasury of the State, to be credited to the "Oyster Fund," and that the provisions of these sections of the sub-title "Chesapeake Bay" shall not apply in any sense to any of the tributaries of the Chesapeake bay.

Ibid.

98. The use of pound nets or stake nets shall be absolutely prohibited in the Chesapeake bay, north of the line one mile
