1898, ch. 312.

6 H. Parents shall give notice to the registrar of their city, town or county of the births or deaths of their children; every householder shall give notice of every birth and death happening in his house; the eldest person next of kin shall give such notice of the death of his kindred; the keeper of a work-house, house of correction, prison, hospital, reformatory, almshouse or other institution, and the master or other commanding officer of a ship or vessel shall give notice of every birth or death happening among the people under his charge.

Ibid.

6 I. The records of births and deaths shall be preserved by the registrar, and shall be open to inspection by all persons for proper purposes, by all city, town or county officials, by the State registrar or his accredited representative; provided, that such examination shall be made in such a way that the contents of the registers shall not be subjected to risk of damage or alteration, and the prompt registry of the births and deaths received by the registrar shall not be interrupted. The registrar shall promptly inquire into the facts when any omissions or discrepancies in the personal or statistical facts are called to his attention, shall truly ascertain such missing facts of record, and make a certified statement thereof to the State Registrar, and enter the correction in red ink over his official signature upon his record. The contents of the register of a copy thereof, duly certified by the registrar, shall be prima facie evidence in all courts, and for all purposes of the facts relative to any birth or death therein recorded, and shall be verified, in case of dispute, by a certified copy of the original certificate of birth or death from the State registrar.

Ibid.

6 K. The local registrars shall receive for performing the services required by this sub-title of this article the following fees: For a permit to disinter a human body, except when required for
