

all contracts for nails or other articles required for the use of said warehouses except for repairs, and shall make a report quarterly, viz: On the first of January, April, July and October in each year, showing the receipts and disbursements of each of said warehouses with the vouchers therefor, giving in detail the respective amounts received from outage, storage, cooperage, reconditioning, stays and sale of scraps, and also showing the respective amounts paid for labor, nails, lumber, hoops, incidentals, wages and salaries, and showing the cash balance for each quarter, and at the quarter ending April first in each year, pay over to the Comptroller to whom the aforesaid reports are required to be made, all moneys in hand after paying all expenses and salaries of said warehouses, and said chief inspector shall have power to have tobacco delivered at such warehouses, as in his judgment may seem best for the public interest.

15. In case of absence of the inspector by reason of sickness or any unavoidable cause, then during his absence his duties shall devolve upon the chief clerk or other such clerk or employe as the inspector may select or designate, who shall qualify under oath for the faithful discharge of the same.

Ibid.

18. It shall be the duty of the inspector to cause each hogshead of tobacco landed or delivered at the warehouses to be numbered in succession, as received, and cause said number to be entered in a book kept for that purpose, together with the time said hogshead was received, the name of the vessel or other conveyance, if known to him, by which said hogshead was brought to the city of Baltimore and of the owner or consignee of said tobacco, and the initials or other trade-marks on said hogshead identifying the same, and when said hogshead shall be removed from said warehouses he shall cause an entry to be made in some book, kept for that purpose, of the time when the same was removed, the name of the person to whom the same was delivered and of the vessel or other conveyance by which the same was taken away.
