

diction, or the committee of any lunatic having funds, money or property of any kind or description, whether invested or uninvested, belonging to cestui que trusts or lunatic, may, upon order of the circuit court of Baltimore city, or upon order of any court of this State having equity jurisdiction, or any judge thereof, transfer, assign or pay over the principal of said trust estate, of whatever it may consist, and being the property of his cestui que trusts, or of such lunatic, to any other trustee of said cestui que trusts or committee, guardian or trustee of such lunatic, appointed as such by a court in any State of competent jurisdiction, or any judge thereof, whether the trustee, committee or guardian so appointed resides in the State of Maryland or elsewhere.

1894, ch. 580.

214. Upon application the circuit court of Baltimore city, or any court in this State having equity jurisdiction, is authorized and empowered to pass an order directing the transfer, assignment or payment of the trust funds, moneys or properties of said cestui que trusts or lunatics to any other trustee, committee or guardian, as specified and mentioned in section 213, provided the said court, before passing the order as aforesaid, or any judge thereof, as mentioned in the preceding section, who is hereby authorized and empowered to pass such order, shall be of opinion that it would be to the interest and advantage of the cestui que trusts or lunatic, that said transfer should be made, and the court or said judge shall further be satisfied that said new trustee, committee or guardian has properly bonded and been qualified as said trustee, committee or guardian.

Ibid.

215. The receipt and release of the trustee or trustees, committee or guardian, properly authenticated, as provided by article 79 of this Code, to whom the said trust moneys, properties and effects of the cestui que trusts or lunatics, shall or may have been paid over, assigned or transferred in virtue of the order or decree of the said Circuit Court of Baltimore city, or of any other court of competent jurisdiction in this State, or any judge thereof, shall be a good and sufficient release to the trustee or committee so paying over, transferring or assigning said trust moneys, properties and effects of said trust estate.
