Counterfeiting and Forgery.

1900, ch. 590.

32. Any person who shall falsely make, forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be falsely made, forged or counterfeited, or willingly aid or assist in falsely making, forging, altering or counterfeiting any deed, will, testament or codicil, bond, writing obligatory, bill of exchange, promissory note for the payment of money or property, endorsement or assignment of any bond, writing obligatory, bill of exchange, acquittance or receipt for money or property, or any acquittance or receipt either for money or for property, with intention to defraud any person whomsoever, or shall utter or publish as true any false, forged, altered or counterfeited deed, will, testament or codicil, bond, writing obligatory, bill of exchange, promissory note for the payment of money or property, or endorsement or assignment of any bond, writing obligatory, bill of exchange, promissory note, acquittance or receipt for money or property shall be deemed a felon, and on being convicted thereof shall be sentenced to the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than ten years. Every offense which has been or shall have been committed against the law hereby repealed and reenacted, shall be dealt with as if said law had not been repealed, and no case or proceeding pending shall abate by reason of such repeal; provided also that any liability in respect to any act of counterfeit-
