JURISDICTION, PROCEDURE AND SENTENCE.

Indictments—Violation of City or Town Ordinances.

1900, ch 131.

291c. In every indictment for the violation of any ordinance of any incorporated city or town of this State, it shall not be necessary to set forth a copy of the said ordinance, or any particular section thereof; but every such indictment shall be sufficient if it recites the number of the ordinance alleged to have been violated, with the date of its passage, or if the ordinance has been embraced in a codification, if it refers to the number of the article and section of such codification containing such ordinance, and conforms to the rules of law governing the framing of indictments for violation of acts of the General Assembly of this State, and concludes "Against the form of the ordinance in such case made and provided, and against the peace, government and dignity of the State."
