

Nominations.

1900, ch. 366.

42. Except in cases provided for by section forty six, and cases of special election to fill vacancies in office caused by death, resignation or otherwise, such certificates of nomination shall be filed, respectively, with the Secretary of State not less than twenty-five days, and with the board of supervisors of elections not less than ten days before the day of election.

Offenses.

1900, ch. 71.

83 A. At every election, whether national, State or municipal, hereafter held in this State, every employer, whether a body corporate, firm or individual, shall allow its or his employe or employes sufficient time, not exceeding four hours, within which to vote; provided, that the said employer shall have the right to designate the time when his employe or employes shall exercise the right herein granted, the employe or employes to be allowed sufficient time not exceeding four hours. Any employer, whether a body corporate, firm or individual, and any officer or agent of any employer, who shall refuse to allow its or his employe or employes sufficient time not exceeding four hours within which to vote or who shall directly or indirectly prevent or hinder its or his employe or employes from exercising the right herein granted by any form of inducement whatever, or by threats, express or implied, that the exercise by said employe or employes of the right herein granted will be followed by a discharge from said employment, or by a reduction in salary or wages, or who shall influence or attempt to influence its or his employe or employes not to exercise the right herein granted upon any pretext whatever shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, or upon conviction thereof shall for each and every offense pay a fine not exceeding the sum of five hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail for a period not exceeding six months, or both, in the discretion of the court.
