

Biennial Examination of Accounts of Offices and Institutions

1900, ch. 111.

25. The Governor shall once in every two years, and oftener if he thinks it necessary, cause an examination to be made of the affairs of all State tobacco warehouses and all offices created by the constitution and laws of this State, and receiving fees or funds of any kind, for which they are required to account with the State or any State official, and if in his judgment he shall deem proper, all State institutions, public or private, receiving State aid, and shall biennially report the result of said examinations to the General Assembly, with such recommendations as he shall deem proper with reference thereto.

Ibid.

26. For the purpose of making the examinations required by the preceding section, the Governor is authorized and empowered to employ such clerical or expert help as he shall deem necessary, and the sum of three thousand dollars per annum, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury not otherwise appropriated for the payment of such help. The preceding section shall not be retroactive in its provisions, and shall not be applicable to any accounts prior to the end of the last fiscal year next preceding its enactment.

1900, ch. 194.

27. The terms, force and effect of the act of 1896, chapter 264, entitled an "Act to provide for the appointment of Commissioners for the Promotion of Uniformity of Legislation in the United States," are hereby extended and continued, and the Governor is hereby authorized and directed to appoint commissioners hereunder, as authorized by said act, in place of the original commissioners heretofore appointed thereunder, and to fill vacancies and reappoint from time to time as may, in his judgment, be necessary to carry out the purposes of said act and this extension thereof and the duties of the said commissioners shall be as set forth in said original act.
