without a permit, as aforesaid, from the register or sub-register of the district where said person died, or otherwise than in accordance with such permit, the certificate of death shall be signed by the physician last in attendance upon the deceased person, or by the health officer or coroner in case of death without medical attendance, or of sudden or violent death. In all cases of death from small-pox, yellow fever, diphtheria, scarlet fever or other contagious or infectious diseases dangerous to public health, the certificate of death shall be forwarded immediately, and interment shall be conducted according to the rules of the State board of health.

1900, ch. 431.

6K. The local register shall receive for performing the services required by sections 6B and 6E the following fees: For each full record and return of a birth or death, twenty cents, to be paid by the county upon warrant of the county commissioners; for a permit to disinter a human body, except when required for the purpose of legal investigation, twenty-five cents, to be paid by the person to whom such permit is issued; for a copy of the record of a birth or death, twenty-five cents, together with payment for time of search, if over half an hour, at the rate of fifty cents an hour, to be paid by the person to whom such copy is furnished. The State register shall certify to each local register quarterly, or oftener, if it shall be considered expedient, the number of properly executed certificates of births and deaths received from such local register for the year or portion of year included; provided that cities having a population of five thousand inhabitants or over shall have power to fix the compensation of local registers for the duties required by this article.

Infectious Diseases—Small Pox.
1900, ch. 337.

31. No teacher in any of the public schools of this State shall receive into such school as a pupil any person who has not been successfully vaccinated; and it shall be the duty of all teachers in the public schools within ten days after the beginning of the