

pay to the treasurer of the Maryland Agricultural College an inspection fee of twenty dollars for each brand or kind of concentrated commercial feeding stuff contemplated to be sold, and shall receive therefor from said treasurer a license to sell such brand of concentrated commercial feeding stuff until the first day of July next following; provided, that when any manufacturer, importer or dealer shall have paid the inspection fee as herein provided it shall not be necessary for any other person, as his agent or representative, to pay said fee.

89. Any manufacturer, importer or person who shall sell, offer or expose for sale or for distribution in this State any concentrated commercial feeding stuff, as defined in section 86, without complying with the requirements of the preceding sections of this sub-title, or any feeding stuff which contains substantially a smaller percentage of constituents than are certified to be contained shall, on conviction in a court of competent jurisdiction, be fined not more than one hundred dollars for the first offense, and not more than two hundred dollars for each subsequent offense.

Ibid.

90. The State chemist of the Maryland Agricultural College shall annually analyze, or cause to be analyzed, at least, one sample (to be taken in the manner hereinafter prescribed) of every concentrated feeding stuff sold or offered for sale under the provisions of this sub-title; said State chemist is hereby authorized and directed in person, or by deputy, to take a sample, not exceeding two pounds in weight, for said analysis, from any lot or package of concentrated commercial feeding stuff which may be in the possession of any manufacturer, importer, agent or dealer, or in transitu in this State. The result of the analysis of the sample or samples so procured, together with such additional information as circumstances advise, shall be published in reports or bulletins from time to time.

Ibid.

91. Any person who shall obstruct the State chemist or his deputy, when in the discharge of his duty, shall be deemed
