

the cities and according to election precincts in the counties, the names and late residences of all such deceased persons and have the same printed and furnish a copy of said printed list to each member of the board of registry of such wards or precincts for their guidance.

1896, ch. 202, sec. 13 1902, ch. 545.

14. Said board of supervisors shall give ten days' notice of the time and place of registration and of revision thereof and of elections in each precinct of such county or city by hand bills set up in the most public places in such precinct and also in the counties by advertisement in two newspapers (one of which newspapers if possible shall be of opposite political faith from that of the majority of said supervisors) of general circulation therein, and in the city of Baltimore by advertisement in all the daily newspapers which will publish the same at their current rate of advertising. And the sheriff of Baltimore city and of each county shall no longer publish such notices of election. Said board shall make all necessary rules and regulations not inconsistent with this article with reference to the registration of voters and the conduct of elections, and they shall have charge of and make provisions for all elections, general, special, local municipal, State and county, and for all others of every description to be held in such city or county, or any part thereof, at any time; all questions shall be decided by a majority of the board unless otherwise expressly provided in this article; provided, however, that in any incorporated city or town in this State (other than the city of Baltimore) in which the municipal or charter elections thereof are now regulated by the public local laws of the State the conduct of such municipal or charter elections shall continue to be so regulated as heretofore, and such public local laws shall continue in force therein.

Registration.

1896, ch. 202, sec. 14.

15. Each judge of election in the city of Baltimore and each of the two judges of election appointed before the first day of July in the counties, as provided in section 7, shall also be an officer of registration in the district or precinct for which he shall be appointed, and the judges so appointed when duly qualified shall for their respective districts or precincts, collectively, constitute the board of registry thereof. Said officers
