

of ——), and that said board refused to register me as a qualified voter in said precinct; that I am a duly qualified voter entitled to vote in said precinct at the next election.”

1896, ch. 202, sec. 19.

20. On the Tuesdays, respectively, six, five and four weeks preceding such regular election, and on the Wednesday next following said Tuesdays, respectively, said board of registry shall again meet at the place designated, and shall remain in session during the hours prescribed in section 17, for the purpose of registering all qualified voters not before registered who shall apply in person to be registered, and also for the purpose of noting the names of any persons on such registry whom they suspect not to be qualified voters. The same forms shall be observed as to the applications made on these days as were required on the former day of registration. If any voter of the ward or county shall go before the board of registry during such sessions and make oath that he believes any specified person upon such registry is not a qualified voter, such fact shall be noted. At the end of the registration for each of these days the registers shall be examined, compared and made to agree, and they shall then be signed immediately, under the last name registered, under each letter, in the same way as hereinbefore provided.

Ibid. sec. 20. 1902, ch. 133.

21. Before separating on the last day said board of registry shall make out and deliver to two of their number of opposite politics a list of the registered address of all those who have been registered as qualified voters, whom either one of the officers of registration suspects not to be qualified voters, or against whom any voter of the ward or county may have made complaint, as above provided. If said board of registry shall, however, know that any person so complained of is a qualified voter, then such name need not be put upon the list of suspected persons, unless required by a member of the board. The officers of registration to whom such list has been delivered shall, on or before Friday next following, sign a notice, and send the same through the mail, duly stamped, to the address as given in the registry of each person who is upon the suspected list, requiring such person to appear before the board of registry upon the Tuesday following, giving the time of such session and show cause why his name should not be erased from such registers; proper blanks and postage stamps
