

ings in all such appeal cases shall from and after the twenty-ninth (29th) day of March, 1902, be one-half of those provided for and usual under existing law. If the board of registry shall have returned the registers to the supervisors of elections, a certified copy of any such order granted by the court shall be delivered to said supervisors, who shall thereupon make the required correction upon the proper registers, and under the head of "Remarks" note that the same was made under such order of the court. The court may enforce any such order by attachment as in proceedings for contempt. No person admitted to the registry by the order of court shall be protected by such order if prosecuted for false registration or false voting. In all such cases the petitioner may be represented by counsel, and in disposing of the petition the court shall have discretion to impose the costs upon the petitioner, the county commissioners or the mayor and city council of Baltimore, or the board of registry, or any member or members thereof as justice and equity may require; but no attorney's appearance fee shall be taxed as part of such costs. In Baltimore city the supreme bench shall from time to time assign a judge or judges before whom or any of whom such petitions shall be heard, and neither party shall have any right of removal. Exceptions may be taken to any ruling of the court at the hearing of any such petition and appeal allowed to the court of appeals, as in other cases; all such appeals shall be taken within five days from the date of the decision complained of, and shall be heard and decided by the court of appeals as soon after the transmission of the record as may be practicable.

25. In the counties a new general registration shall be made by each board of registry in the year 1906. Such new general registration shall be made in the same way, at the same times and under the same rules and provisions in all respects as are in this article prescribed for the first general registration.

Ibid. sec 25. 1904, ch. 254.

26. In the city of Baltimore there shall be a general registration in the year 1906 and biennially thereafter. Before the November election, 1904 and 1905, and in the year 1907, and in every alternate year thereafter, the last general registration
