122. At least thirty days before every State election the attorney-general shall prepare full instructions for the guidance of the voters of such election, as to obtaining ballots, as to the manner of marking them, and as to obtaining new ballots in place of those accidentally destroyed, with such other instructions as shall, in his opinion, be necessary and proper. Said instructions shall be furnished by the secretary of State to the several boards of supervisors of elections, who shall respectively cause the same, together with copies of sections 66, 67 and 68 of this article, to be printed in large, clear type, on separate cards, to be called "Cards of Instruction," and said board of supervisors shall furnish twelve of the same, with ballots for use in each election precinct. They shall also cause to be printed, on light cardboard or heavy-sized paper, ten or more copies of the form of the ballot provided for each voting place, at each election therein, of a considerably magnified size, which shall be called "Specimen Ballots," and the same shall be furnished with the other ballots prepared for each voting place. On the morning of said election the said supervisors of elections shall cause to be conspicuously posted in each polling place said cards of instruction and largely magnified specimen ballots, and one of said cards of instruction shall be fixed in each booth or voting compartment, and the said specimen ballots shall be conspicuously displayed in said polling room and on the outside of the building wherein said voting shall take place. Not less than three of said cards and three of said specimen ballots shall be posted outside of the guard rails, and not less than three of each of same shall be securely and conspicuously posted on the outside of the building in which the polls are held, before the balloting begins, in such position that the same may be easily examined by the public. It shall also be the duty of the several boards of supervisors of elections, on the morning of said election, to cause to be conspicuously posted in such polling place, and in each voting booth of each polling place, separate tickets or lists containing the names of the candidates of each political party, with a designation of the several offices for which they are candidates, so that voters may thereby be aided in selecting the candidates for whom they wish to vote, and in marking the official ballots accordingly.
