

said officer or employe so refusing and appoint another who will enforce the provisions of said sections.

1888, art. 39, sec 87 1874, ch. 150, sec. 4. 1876, ch. 47.

98. It shall be the duty of said commissioners to make an annual report to the governor, of the work accomplished by the commission, and also embracing such suggestions for the protection and propagation of food fishes in the waters of this State as may be the result of their observation and experience; which report the governor shall cause to be printed, and transmit the same to the general assembly of the State.

Ibid. sec. 88. 1874, ch. 150, sec. 5.

99. The salaries of said commissioners shall be fifteen hundred dollars per annum each; and the sum of three thousand dollars per annum is hereby appropriated to pay the said salaries.

Ibid. sec. 89. 1874, ch. 150, sec. 6. 1876, ch. 47. 1890, ch. 189.

100. The further sum of ten thousand dollars per annum, or so much thereof as may in the opinion of the governor be necessary, is appropriated for the purpose of enabling said commissioners to carry out the provisions of sections 91, 92 and 98, and the comptroller shall issue his warrant on the treasurer for the payment of said sum on requisition of said commissioners in such amounts as they may require, approved by the governor out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated; and said fish commissioners shall annually render to the comptroller of the State for the inspection of the general assembly, strict and accurate itemized accounts of all moneys received by them from the State, and of the disbursement or expenditure of the same with vouchers therefor; and the comptroller at each session of the general assembly shall make a report thereof showing whether said fish commissioners have complied with the law.

Chesapeake Bay.

1896, ch. 441, sec. 90.

101. Any resident of this State desiring to engage in the business of taking or catching of fish for sale, by the use of pound nets, fykes, haul seines or other contrivances, except hook and line, within the waters of the Chesapeake bay, below Pool's island, and within the jurisdictional limits of the State of Maryland, shall first obtain by application to the clerk of the
