

67. Duty of hotel-keeper, boarding-house keeper, manager of institution, etc., in cases of existence of infectious disease where there is no physician in charge.
68. Penalty for neglect or refusal to obey the law in this regard.
69. Regulation where no special health department has been established.
70. Regulations as to infected articles. Damages.
71. Regulations as to removing or abating nuisances in places where there is no special health department.
72. Penalty for neglect or violation of these regulations.
73. Duty of State's attorney upon complaint as to such offense.

Nuisances.

74. Investigation of.
75. Proceedings to abate.
76. What orders the court may pass.
77. Penalty for refusing to obey such orders; procedure.

Practitioners of Medicine.

78. Must possess qualifications required by this article.
79. Two boards of medical examiners, allopathic and homeopathic Their number of members, qualifications and term of office, etc Who shall not serve. Vacancies.
80. Duties of secretary-treasurer.
81. Meetings of such board for examining applicants for license, etc.
82. Schedule of written examination. Votes of examiners
83. Affidavit. Written applications of persons commencing the practice of medicine must be made to the board. Requirements of applicants.
84. Physician changing residence to district of Columbia entitled to license.
85. Conduct of examinations.
86. Examination fee.
87. Refusal of license for deficiency in examination.
88. Form of license.
89. Licenses to be filed Record open for inspection. Registration fee.
90. Penalty for violating the provisions of this sub-title.
91. Boards of medical examiners to make report.
92. Certificate to physician moving out of State
93. All practising physicians or surgeons must be registered.
94. Qualifications of registered physicians or surgeons.
95. License must be filed in circuit court before persons commencing practice subsequent to June 1, 1892, may be registered.
96. Applications of physicians and surgeons from other States.
97. Who are to be regarded as duly registered physicians and surgeons. Registration fee.
98. Penalty for obtaining registration under false statement.
99. Penalty for failure to register.
100. Petition for the removal of person wrongfully registered. Proceedings thereon.
101. Who to be regarded as a practitioner of medicine.
102. Duty of police commissioners and sheriff as to registration.