

tation of the order and certification of the teacher that such vaccination has been performed; provided, that in the counties or in the city of Baltimore, when vaccine physicians are appointed or contracts made with certain physicians by the proper authorities for the vaccination of all children or persons who may apply free of charge to the person applying; the provisions of this section providing for the payment of physicians' certified orders of teachers shall not apply. Any teacher neglecting or refusing to comply with the provisions of this section shall on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace having jurisdiction over said offense, be fined ten dollars for each and every offense. And no public school trustee or commissioner shall grant any permit to any person who has not been successfully vaccinated to enter as a pupil any public school under the same penalty.

1888, art. 43, sec. 32. 1864, ch. 269, sec. 8. 1900, ch. 337, sec. 8.

47. All fines imposed under the provisions of the four preceding sections shall be recovered before a justice of the peace, in the same manner as small debts are recoverable, for the use of the school fund of the county or city in which such offense shall occur.

Ibid. sec. 33. 1867, ch. 6. 1872, ch. 257, sec. 11.

48. The State vaccine agent is hereby required to take all steps necessary to reproduce from the cow true vaccine virus, for the use of physicians residing and practising medicine and surgery in the State, and shall furnish none more than four removes from the cow, if practicable, and none that has not been produced under his own supervision and direction; provided, that he may take, use and furnish such virus furnished to him by any physician entrusted by him to procure the same; such virus not to be taken from the arm of a child less than three months old; and the said agent shall report annually to the governor the particulars of his expenditures and other matters connected with the duties of his agency.

Ibid. sec. 34. 1864, ch. 269, sec. 8. 1872, ch. 257, sec. 9.

49. The State vaccine agent shall give bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of three thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties; said bond to be approved by the comptroller of the State.
