

of such respective warehouses to the chief clerk, who shall enter a full record thereof in a book kept by him for that purpose; the chief clerk shall collect all moneys due said warehouses, and in a set of books to be provided for that purpose, keep the accounts of each warehouse separately, and consolidate the operations of all of said warehouses in one general ledger, so as to show the operations thereof individually and collectively. The chief inspector shall select an office in one of the warehouses now used by the State, to be most agreeable to him, with a due regard to the most central location for the purpose of business.

1890, ch 262, sec. 13. 1898, ch 314.

13. The salaries and wages of the chief inspector, deputies, assistant clerks and all employes and appointees of said warehouses shall be paid from the receipts thereof and from no other source.

1898, ch. 314, sec. 14. 1900, ch. 231.

14. The chief inspector shall have full charge of all the receipts and disbursements of the said warehouses, shall make all contracts for nails or other articles required for the use of said warehouses, except for repairs, and shall make a report quarterly to the comptroller, on the first of January, April, July and October in each year, showing the receipts and disbursements of each of said warehouses, with the vouchers therefor, giving in detail the respective amounts received from outage, storage, cooperage, reconditioning, stays and sale of scraps, and also showing the respective amounts paid for labor, nails, lumber, hoops, incidentals, wages and salaries, and showing the cash balance for each quarter; and at the quarter ending July first in each year pay over to the comptroller all moneys in hand after paying all expenses and salaries of said warehouses; and said chief inspector shall have power to have tobacco delivered at such warehouses as in his judgment may seem best for the public interest.

1888, art. 48, sec. 15, 1872, ch. 36, sec. 8. 1898, ch. 314.

15. In case of absence of the inspector by reason of sickness or any unavoidable cause, then during his absence his duties shall devolve upon the chief clerk or other such clerk or employe as the inspector may select or designate, who shall qualify under oath for the faithful discharge of the same.

Ibid. sec. 16. 1872, ch. 36, sec. 9.

16. The hours of labor in the several tobacco warehouses in the city of Baltimore shall be from seven o'clock A. M., until