

twelve o'clock M., and from one o'clock P. M., until six o'clock P. M.

1888, art. 48, sec 17. 1872, ch. 36, sec. 10.

17. All tobacco landed or delivered at any of the warehouses in the city of Baltimore, for inspection, shall be taken charge of by the inspector, through his receiving clerk, and the parties delivering the same shall be entitled to receive, upon demand, the inspector's receipt therefor.

Ibid. sec. 18. 1864, ch 346. 1898, ch. 314.

18. It shall be the duty of the inspector to cause each hogshead of tobacco landed or delivered at the warehouses to be numbered in succession, as received, and cause said number to be entered in a book kept for that purpose, together with the time said hogshead was received, the name of the vessel or other conveyance, if known to him, by which said hogshead was brought to the city of Baltimore and of the owner or consignee of said tobacco, and the initials or other trade-marks on said hogshead identifying the same, and when said hogshead shall be removed from said warehouses he shall cause an entry to be made in some book, kept for that purpose, of the time when the same was removed, the name of the person to whom the same was delivered and of the vessel or other conveyance by which the same was taken away.

Ibid. sec. 19. 1867, ch. 368.

19. It shall be the duty of each tobacco inspector to cause all tobacco in the warehouse to which he may have been appointed to be inspected as speedily as practicable in regular order as numbered without favor, affection or partiality to anyone; and each violation of the provisions of this section shall subject the offender to a penalty of one hundred dollars, to be recovered in the criminal court of Baltimore.

Ibid sec. 20. 1864, ch 346.

20. It shall be the duty of each inspector to cause each hogshead of tobacco before it is uncased, to be weighed, and the tobacco in each hogshead, and the cask itself, to be separately weighed in his presence, or that of his weighing clerk, in scales with weights of the proper standard; and the weight of each hogshead as first weighed, and the gross and net weight of the tobacco therein contained after inspection, to be entered in a proper book, with sufficient reference to its numbers and marks as previously recorded.
