

Baltimore shall be legibly marked or stenciled thereon; and it shall be the duty of the inspector to retain for inspection every hogshead of tobacco not so marked or stenciled until the name of the owner thereof shall have been ascertained and placed thereon.

1888, art. 48, sec. 46. 1886, ch. 101, sec. 30 B.

45. It shall be the duty of the several inspectors of tobacco to carefully return all bundles of tobacco, other than samples which may be drawn in sampling, and all bundles which may be displaced in uncasing tobacco to the hogshead from which the same were drawn or displaced; and any inspector of tobacco who shall knowingly violate the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of misconduct in office, and shall be liable to removal therefrom.

Ibid. sec. 47 1872, ch. 36, sec. 31

46. When any inspector shall bring his own tobacco to the warehouse whereof he is inspector, the same shall not be inspected unless done by the inspector of some other warehouse.

Ibid. sec. 48. 1864, ch 346, sec. 41. 1870, ch. 291. 1888, ch. 156.

47. It shall and may be lawful for any grower or owner of tobacco grown in this State to sell the same either in the State or out of it, in hogsheads of any size or weight, or in boxes, or in any other kind or style of package, without being compelled to have the same inspected by the State inspectors, and without being compelled to place the same in the State warehouses for any purpose whatsoever, or to pay any charge for outage, storage, or any other charge thereon, to the State or any of its constituted officers.

Ibid. sec. 49. 1888, ch. 156, sec. 3.

48. If any grower or owner of tobacco grown in this State shall desire to store such tobacco in any of the State tobacco warehouses, without having the same inspected by the State inspectors, and without the same being subject to the laws relating to inspections of tobacco, he may do so upon paying storage therefor at the rate of twenty-five cents per hogshead per month, or fractional part of a month, for the first two months that said tobacco shall remain in said warehouses, and fifteen cents per month or fractional part of a month for every
