

costs of prosecution and upon failure to pay the same shall be committed to jail and confined therein until such fine and costs are paid, or for the period of forty days whichever shall first occur.

Seick v. State, 94 Md. 72.

1890, ch. 304, sec. 86 A.

96. If any person having a license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer shall give to any person who is a minor or under twenty-one years any such spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, or having such license shall allow upon the premises occupied by him any such person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age to drink any such spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer sold or bartered by him, he shall on conviction pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars together with the costs of prosecution and upon failure to pay the same shall be committed to jail and confined therein until such fine or costs are paid, or for the period of forty days whichever shall first occur; and it shall be the duty of the court before whom said person shall be convicted to suppress the license.*

Ibid. sec. 86 B.

97. If any person shall take out an ordinary license as herein provided without having the bedding and other accommodations required, he shall on conviction pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars together with the costs of prosecution and upon failure to pay the same shall be committed to jail and confined therein until such fine and costs are paid, or for the period of forty days whichever shall first occur; and it shall be the duty of the court before whom said person shall be convicted to suppress the license.

1902, ch. 291, sec. 86 c.

98 It shall not be lawful for any person, or for any club or association, or for any corporation now formed or hereafter to be formed, or for any officer, agent or employe of any such club, association or corporation, to hire or employ any minor to sell or dispense anywhere in the State any beer or spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind at retail, where such beer or liquors are to be drunk upon the premises. Any person violating any provision of this section shall upon conviction be fined a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.
