

1888, art. 56, sec. 96. 1860, art. 56, sec. 99. 1841, ch. 194, sec. 4.

112. It shall be the duty of the persons enumerated in the preceding section to exhibit their licenses to any justice or constable who may demand a view thereof; and if they or any of them refuse or neglect so to do they shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars for every such neglect or refusal; and if any such neglect or refusal shall occur before a justice of the peace, it shall be his duty forthwith to issue his warrant in the name of the State against the offender and upon return to enter judgment and issue execution for the said sum of twenty dollars and costs for the use of the State; and if such refusal or neglect shall happen before a constable, he shall arrest the person so refusing or neglecting and carry him before a justice of the peace, who shall give judgment and issue execution as aforesaid, one-half to the constable and the other half to the use of the State; provided that in either case the defendant shall have the right to stay execution or appeal from such judgment on giving security, as in other cases of appeals.

Ibid. sec. 97. 1860, art. 56, sec. 100. 1845, ch. 374, sec. 2.

113. No lecturer upon science, literature, morality or religion shall be required to pay any license whatever.

Ibid. sec. 98. 1860, art. 56, sec. 101. 1845, ch. 374, sec. 3.

114. Every entertainment, exhibition or performance given for charitable objects shall be exempt from taxation or license.

Shows of Agricultural Fair Associations.

1894, ch. 427.

115. Any agricultural fair association duly incorporated under the laws of the State may hold on its grounds one annual exhibition not exceeding six days without the payment of any license to the State of Maryland, city or county where held; and any person or persons, association or organized company to whom said agricultural fair association shall grant the privilege to sell, barter, show, exhibit or in any way conduct any lawful business on the grounds of said agricultural association during any of its exhibitions shall in the manner and during the time of said exhibitions be exempt from the payment of any State, county or municipal license.*
