

is proceeding, and shall also exhibit at least one red light, visible in the reverse direction; upon the sides or fronts of the two aforesaid lamps showing white lights shall be displayed, in such manner as to be plainly visible when said lamps are lighted, the number of the license issued as aforesaid by the secretary of State, the same to be in separate Arabic numerals not less than one inch in height; every motor vehicle shall also be provided with good and efficient brake or brakes, and shall also be provided with suitable bell, horn or other signal device.

1904, ch. 518, sec. 4.

134. The following rate of speed may be maintained, but shall not be exceeded, upon any public street, public road or turnpike, public park or parkway, or public driveway, or public highway in this State by anyone driving a motor vehicle:

(1) A speed of one mile in ten minutes upon the sharp curves of a highway and at the intersection of prominent cross-roads where such road or highway passes through the open country.

(2) A speed of one mile in ten minutes where such street or highway passes through the built-up portions of a city, town or village.

(3) Elsewhere except as otherwise provided in sub-divisions 1 and 2 of this section a speed of one mile in six minutes; provided, however, that in meeting or passing a person driving or riding or leading a horse or horses or other animals, such speed shall be reduced to a mile in ten minutes, and nothing in this section contained shall permit any person to drive a motor vehicle at any speed greater than is reasonable, having regard to the traffic and use of highways, or so as to endanger the life or limb or to injure the property of any person. Nothing in this section contained shall affect the right of any person injured either in his person or property by the negligent operation of a motor vehicle to sue and recover damages as heretofore.

Ibid. sec. 5.

135. The person in charge of said motor vehicle, at the signal or request of any person riding a horse, or of any person leading or driving a horse or horses or other animals, or at the indication of such horse or horses or other animals becoming alarmed by said motor vehicle, shall go as far as practicable to the side of the road and remain stationary until
