1904, ch. 518, sec. 6.

136. Any person driving a motor vehicle the owner of which shall not have complied with the provisions of this sub-title, or which motor vehicle shall display a fictitious number, the same being a number other than that designated for such motor vehicle by the secretary of State, shall, upon conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars and in default of payment thereof be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding thirty days ; provided, this section shall not be construed to prohibit a motor vehicle displaying the proper number of its license from also displaying any other number for any lawful purpose.

Ibid. sec. 7.

137. Any person driving a motor vehicle upon any public streets, public highways, public roads, turnpikes, parks, public parkways or public driveways in this State in a race or on a bet or wager shall, upon conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, and, in default of payment thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding thirty days.

Ibid. sec. 8.

138. All motor vehicles used in this State shall be provided with a suitable lock to lock the starting lever, throttle or switch by which the vehicle is started, and no person shall allow any motor vehicle operated by him to stand or remain unattended on any road in said State, or street or road in any town or city in said State, without having first locked the lever, throttle or switch by which the vehicle may be set in motion.

Ibid. sec. 9.

139. Any person violating the provisions of this sub-title shall, except as otherwise provided herein, upon conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding the amount hereinafter set forth : For a violation of section 131, fifty dollars ; for a violation of section 132, twenty dollars ; for a violation of section 133, twenty dollars ; for a violation of section 134, sub-division 1, twenty-five dollars ; for a violation of section 134, sub-division 2, twenty-five dollars ; for a violation of section 134, sub-division 3, fifty dollars ; for a violation of section 135, fifty dollars or confinement in the county jail for not less than thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the magistrate or court.
