1888, art. 58, sec. 6. 1888, ch. 519, sec. 6.

6. Any person who shall violate or transgress the terms or requirements of any order or regulation issued and prescribed by the said veterinary inspector with the consent of the said live stock sanitary board, under the authority of this article, or shall refuse to said veterinary inspector or his assistants access to his premises, farms, stables, cars, sheds or pens, or shall resist said inspector or his assistants in applying any of the quarantine orders or regulations or shall conceal the fact, that contagious or infectious disease exists on his premises shall be subject to a fine of not more than one hundred nor less than fifty dollars, which fine may be imposed by any station house justice of the peace of the city of Baltimore or any justice of any county where such offense may be committed.

Ibid. sec. 7. 1888, ch. 519, sec. 7.

7. It shall be the duty of all persons practising veterinary medicine in this State to report immediately to said board all cases of contagious or infectious disease among live stock, which may come to their knowledge ; and a failure to so report for forty-eight hours after they shall come into such knowledge shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, they shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars for each offense.

Ibid. sec. 8. 1888, ch. 519, sec. 8.

8. It shall be unlawful for any person to inoculate any animal in this State with the virus of any infectious or contagious disease incident to animals without the consent of the said live stock sanitary board and any person convicted of this offense shall be fined a sum not less than one nor more than five hundred dollars, in the discretion of the court.

Ibid. sec. 9. 1888, ch. 519, sec. 9.

9. For the performance of the duties imposed on them by this article all constables, sheriffs or deputy sheriffs or other
