

1888, art. 59, sec. 2. 1860, art. 58, sec. 2. 1817, ch. 78. 1904, ch. 421.

2. From and after the first day of January, 1909, the State of Maryland shall be charged with the maintenance, care, control and treatment of all dependent insane persons who are at that time residents of the State of Maryland. And as soon as practicable after the said first day of January, 1909, the State board of lunacy shall transfer from the several county almshouses and county and city asylums to one of the State hospitals for the insane such dependent insane persons who are residents of the State of Maryland as in the judgment of the said board of lunacy should be so removed; and all such dependent insane persons, after their removal to one of the State hospitals for the insane, shall be maintained therein at the expense of the State. In furtherance of this purpose, a commission shall be appointed by the governor, of which he shall be a member ex-officio, consisting of the lunacy commission, who shall report to the legislature on or before the 15th day of January, 1906, such amendments to the present law regulating the care and treatment of the insane and such other measures, including plans for the enlargement of the present State hospitals or the creation of other State hospitals, as may to such commission seem necessary.

Ibid sec. 3. 1860, art. 58, sec. 3. 1824, ch. 49. 1900, ch. 603.

3. No person shall be deemed entitled to the benefit of the preceding sections who shall possess or be entitled to receive sufficient income for his or her maintenance and support as a patient in any home, retreat or hospital for the insane in this State or who has relatives or others legally chargeable with his or her support who are able to pay for the maintenance and support of the said person as a patient at any home, retreat or hospital for the insane in this State. The county commissioners of any county or the supervisors of city charities of the department of charities and corrections of the city of Baltimore may consent in writing to the commitment in accordance with the provisions of section 1, of any indigent insane person from the respective counties or the city aforesaid not able to pay the whole cost of his or her maintenance, but who may be able to pay for part thereof, as a reimbursing patient, and designate the rate per week which shall be reimbursed to the county or city of Baltimore from which said patient is committed; but no person shall be committed as a reimbursing patient who is able or who has relatives or others legally chargeable with the support of said person who are able to
