

1888, art. 59, sec. 7. 1860, art. 58, sec. 7. 1826, ch. 197, sec. 3.

7. If during the recess of the circuit court for any county, or the criminal court of Baltimore, any person appearing or alleged to be insane or lunatic shall be arrested and charged with any crime or misdemeanor before the judge thereof, the said judge shall issue an order to the sheriff of the county or city where said offense has been committed, requiring him forthwith to summon a jury of twelve good and lawful men and to charge such jury to inquire whether such person was lunatic or insane at the time such offense was committed and still is so; and if the jury find that the party charged was insane or lunatic at the time of the commission of the offense and still is so, the judge shall commit such person as directed in the preceding section.

Ibid. sec. 8. 1860, art. 58, sec. 8. 1828, ch. 201

8. The provisions of the preceding section shall apply to the case of any person who may be arrested on any process issued by any court or judge of this State, founded on oath, requiring security to keep the peace, and who shall fail to give such security.

Ibid. sec. 9. 1860, art. 58, sec. 9. 1826, ch. 197, sec. 3.

9. If any insane or lunatic person mentioned in the three preceding sections shall be possessed of real or personal property, the annual profit or rent of which shall be adequate to his reasonable support in any hospital or asylum for the reception of insane or lunatic persons, the court or judge shall appoint a trustee for the estate of said lunatic or insane person and shall require the said trustee to give bond to the State of Maryland in such penalty and with such security as the court or judge shall approve, with condition that he will cause the said lunatic or insane person to be confined and supported in some hospital or insane asylum until such person shall have recovered his reason, and that he will faithfully administer and fully account for all such estate, income and effects of said lunatic or insane person as shall come to his possession or be under his care or direction.

Duties of Trustees of the Poor.

Ibid. sec. 10. 1860, art. 58, sec. 10. 1826, ch. 197, sec. 4.

10. The trustees of the poor of the several counties and the city of Baltimore shall receive all persons committed to their respective almshouses under the preceding sections and shall
