

1900, ch. 521, sec. 2.

44. When the lunacy commission receive the report required by the preceding section it shall be the duty of such commission without delay to examine, or cause to be examined, by at least two competent physicians such inmate or inmates with special reference to his, her or their mental condition, and if the members of said lunacy commission, after such examination shall have been made, shall be of opinion such inmate so examined is by reason of mental imbecility, idiocy or unsoundness of mind incapable of taking proper care of himself or herself they shall report such fact to the circuit court for Baltimore county with the reason for their opinion therefor.

Ibid. sec. 3

45. When the report mentioned in the preceding section shall have been filed in said court, it shall be the duty of the judge or judges thereof to examine the same, and if of the opinion from such report and the reason given therein that the welfare of such inmate would be promoted by his or her remaining longer in the custody and subject to the control of the management of said asylum and training school, said judge or judges shall certify the same, which shall be authority for the retention of the control of such inmate until otherwise ordered.

1894, ch. 562, sec. 2.

46. All legacies now existing or hereafter given by persons dying subsequent to April 6, 1894, and all gifts, grants and devises intended for this corporation but heretofore or hereafter given or made to it in the name of the Visitors of the asylum and training school for the feeble minded of the State of Maryland instead of its name as fixed by section 39 shall inure to the benefit of and vest and remain in the Maryland Asylum and Training School for Feeble Minded as fully as if given, granted, devised or bequeathed in that name in the first instance.