

- 5 Of what the general staff of the militia shall consist
6. Duties of the adjutant general. Salary of clerk to adjutant general.
7. Duties of other officers of the staff

II. Maryland National Guard.

1 ORGANIZATION.

8. What shall constitute the "Maryland National Guard."
9. Infantry reorganization.
10. Additional men enlisted.
11. Organization of new companies.
- 12 Brigade staff, how composed.
13. Officers of the line, how elected.
14. How election of the brigadier general and other field officers shall be made.
15. Names to be forwarded to commander-in-chief; board of examiners; approval by the governor
- 16 Applicants for enlistment.
- 17 Officers and men to take oath; form of oath.
18. Terms of commissions and enlistment.
19. Resignation of officers.
20. When officers may not resign.
21. When company may be mustered in.

2 DISCIPLINE.

- 22 Inspection of brigades.
23. Courts-martial.
24. Rules for government of first naval battalion.
- 25 Military board, how appointed.
- 26 By-laws for each regiment, and separate organization.
27. Liability of force to be called into service—to be subject to military rules and regulations.
28. Fines and penalties for such military offenses.

29. Trial of such offenses. Proceedings
30. Penalty for misapplication of money or other property.
31. Return of arms, equipments, etc. Penalty for failure to make such return.
32. Disbandment of company.

3. SERVICE AND PAY.

33. Encampments; first brigade; naval brigade.
34. Pay of commissioned and non-commissioned officers and men—of officers and seamen of naval brigade
35. Certificate of officer or private having served three years may exempt him from jury duty
36. Calling out the militia for suppression of disorder, riots, etc

4 MAINTENANCE AND EQUIPMENT.

37. Appropriation for militia, how to be applied.
38. Distribution of such appropriation; provisos
39. Disbursing officer shall give bond.
40. Duty of commander-in-chief upon failure of such disbursing officer to report
41. Accounts to be kept by adjutant general. Reports to be made and published by him of such accounts. Commissioned officers to have access to such reports.
42. State military board. Their meetings. Adjutant general to be president of said board.
43. All bills or allowances shall be sworn to before payment is made.
44. Arms and equipments, etc., how furnished to companies; proviso.