

for tongers to pay for the privilege of taking oysters during a full oyster season in any one year; and said license shall permit such licensee to take or catch oysters in the Chesapeake bay or in the Potomac river at any time that oysters are allowed to be taken in said Chesapeake bay and Potomac river under the provisions of the general oyster law of the State; and the holder of such license shall be permitted to use the same in the Patuxent river and its tributaries in St. Mary's, Calvert and Charles counties, and in the tributaries of the Potomac river of Charles and St. Mary's counties, from the first day of October until the first day of April in each year.

1904, ch. 522, sec. 4.

57. Any person holding a license on April 8, 1904, to take or catch oysters in the Patuxent river and its tributaries, or the tributaries of the Potomac river in St. Mary's, Charles or Calvert counties, shall be permitted to use such license for the full term for which they were granted.

Ibid. sec. 5.

58. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of sections 54 to 57 shall be subject to the same penalties and dealt with in the same manner as provided for in the general oyster law of the State for taking or catching oysters during the closed season or without license.

Potomac.

1894, ch. 380, sec. 51.

59. It shall not be lawful for any person to take or catch oysters in any manner whatever in the waters of the Potomac river unless he be a citizen of Maryland or Virginia and shall have been a resident of the State of which he is a citizen for twelve months immediately preceding. Any one violating this section shall be subject to a fine of five hundred dollars; any vessel in which oysters are taken contrary to this section shall be forfeited and sold, one-half of the proceeds to go to the State where convicted and the other half to the informer.

Ibid. sec. 52. 1904, ch. 341.

60. It shall not be lawful for any citizen of Maryland or Virginia to take or catch oysters with a scoop, scrape or dredge or any such instrument in the waters of the Potomac river between the fifteenth day of March and the fifteenth day of October of each year; it shall not be lawful for any citizen of