

board of inspectors provided for the city of Baltimore in section 68 of this article, and the general measures and inspectors provided in said section 68 shall be assigned to and remain during the whole season at the specific points mentioned in said section, subject, however, to the direction of the commander, and the commander of the State fishery force shall have general control and supervision over all measurers and inspectors whether appointed by the governor or himself, and the said inspectors and measurers are hereby required to report to him whenever he shall require the same, and if they shall refuse or neglect to make such report they shall be fined for each such failure or refusal the sum of ten dollars, to be deducted from their salaries, and said commander shall have the power to transfer any inspector or measurer from any house or district whenever he may deem it best for the good of the service to enforce the proper measurement, the cull law and the collection of the tax for the oyster fund.

1894, ch. 380, sec. 60. 1900, ch. 380.

71. It shall be the duty of said general measurers and inspectors of oysters to see that the law in reference to the measurement and inspection of oysters be strictly complied with by all subordinates, and the general measurers and inspectors of oysters shall have authority at all times to enter all places and all vessels where oysters are being measured and inspected in the shell and to inspect all the measures or instruments used in measuring oysters and to see that the inspection laws are properly enforced and if the measures are incorrect the said general measurer and inspector of oysters shall take possession of the incorrect measures and the inspectors of oysters are authorized, directed and required to arrest any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this article; it shall be the further duty of the general measurers and inspectors of oysters to return under oath to the comptroller of the State annually a complete statement of the amount of oysters measured and inspected in the city, town or port for which they shall be respectively appointed.

Ibid. sec. 61.

72. The general measurers and inspectors of oysters of Baltimore city or a majority of them are empowered and authorized to suspend the right or privilege of any person licensed to measure or inspect oysters in said city to measure