

or inspect oysters under said license ; provided, however, that no such right to suspend shall exist unless a charge is pending against said licensed measurer and inspector for a violation of the provisions of this article in reference to the measurement and inspection of oysters, and if such charge shall be dismissed by a court of competent jurisdiction, such suspension shall end ; and upon notice from the buyer or seller of oysters, the general measurer and inspector of oysters shall designate the measurer and inspector or licensed measurer and inspector to measure and inspect the oysters sold out of said vessel.

73. The general measurers and inspectors for Baltimore city shall receive a salary of one hundred dollars per month each, and all other general measurers and inspectors provided for by section 68 shall receive the salary of fifty dollars per month each, the said salaries to be paid only for those months in which said measurers and inspectors are actually engaged in the performance of the duties of their respective offices by the treasurer, on a warrant of the comptroller. Any person who shall violate any provisions of this article from section 68 to 73, both inclusive, or who shall interfere with the general measurers and inspectors of oysters or the measurers and special inspectors in the discharge of their duties shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction before any justice of the peace or court of competent jurisdiction shall pay a fine of fifty dollars and costs, one-half of said fine to the informer, unless he be an officer under this article, and the other half to the comptroller, to the credit of the oyster fund. In default of payment of fines and costs, the party convicted shall be confined in jail for not more than twenty days. The appointment of the general measurers and inspectors and measurers and special inspectors, as provided in sections 68 and 69, shall be made on or before September 1st in each and every year, and each and every inspector shall report monthly to the commander of the State fishery force, or offener if required by him, concerning all the oysters that may be disposed of within his inspection district and such reports shall be a full and complete account of all sales of oysters that have been made within such district.

Ibid. sec. 63. 1896, ch 418. 1900, ch. 380.

74. All oysters sold in this State shall be measured either in a one-half bushel tub, a bushel tub, a bushel and one-half
