

court from which the same was sent ; and it shall be the duty of said clerk receiving such transcript so to him returned, to correct the same forthwith, noting at the end thereof the corrections so made, or to prepare a new transcript of the said record, which shall be correct in all its parts.

Shriver v. Hering, 97 Md. 20.

1888, art. 75, sec 103. 1860, art. 75, sec. 80. 1853, ch. 10.

108. The court to which any imperfect transcript is sent shall have power to order the delivery thereof to the clerk of the court from which the case was removed as often as may be necessary to the perfection of said transcript as a true copy of the record in the case ; and the court to which such case is removed shall proceed with the trial thereof at as early a day as may be ; and all recognizances and other proceedings had in the court to which the case is removed shall be as good and valid as if the transcript of the record originally transmitted had been correct in all its parts.

Ibid sec. 104 1860, art. 75, sec. 81. 1856, ch. 322, sec. 1.

109. In all civil cases which may be removed to another county under the provisions of this article, and in which a final judgment may be obtained, the clerk of the court in which such judgment may be obtained shall, on application of the plaintiff therein, issue execution on said judgment or decree against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, rights and credits, of any defendant lying in the county or city in which said case shall have been originally instituted ; or, if the judgment is for the defendant, he may have the same remedy.

Browning v. Loraw, 58 Md. 524. Repp v. Berger, 60 Md. 1.

Ibid. sec. 105. 1860, art. 75, sec. 82. 1856, ch. 322, sec. 2.

110. Any such execution shall be directed to and served by the sheriff or coroner, as the case may be, of the county or city in which the case was originally instituted, and returned to the circuit court for the county of which he is sheriff, or the superior court of Baltimore city, if in said city ; and it shall be sufficient for the plaintiff, to entitle himself to the benefit of such execution, to produce before the court to which the same shall be returnable, a short copy of the judgment by him obtained, attested by the clerk of the court before which the same is had.

Ibid. sec. 106. 1860, art. 75, sec. 83. 1815, ch. 149, secs. 1, 2.

111. Every court to which any cause may be removed shall have power to issue a warrant of re-survey, order, or other
