

Chapter 8. Teachers.

1888, art. 77, sec. 48. 1872, ch. 377. 1904, ch. 584.

52. No person shall be employed as a teacher under this article unless such person shall hold a certificate of qualification (a) issued by the superintendent of the county in which he or she proposes to teach; (b) a certificate from a principal of a State normal school of Maryland, or of the principal of the normal department of Washington college; (c) a diploma of a State normal school of Maryland, or of the principal of the normal department of Washington college; (d) a normal school diploma of another State endorsed by the State superintendent of public education, or a diploma from the normal department of a school or college of this State, recognized as such by the State board of education; or (e) a certificate from the State board of education, as herein provided.

School Board v. Wagaman, 84 Md. 161.

Ibid. sec. 49. 1872, ch. 377. 1902, ch. 460. 1904, ch. 584.

53. Principal teachers shall be appointed by the board of district school trustees, subject to confirmation by the board of county school commissioners; and said teachers may be removed at any time said board of district school trustees may think proper, after thirty days' notice in writing; provided further, that the said board of district school trustees shall furnish, in writing, when required by the teacher so notified, the reasons for dismissal; provided, further, that the right of appeal shall lie to the board of county school commissioners, whose action in confirming or rejecting the action of the district trustees shall be final.

Ibid. sec. 50. 1870, ch. 311. 1872, ch. 377, sub-ch. 8, sec. 3. 1874, ch. 463.

54. Teachers shall enter into their quarterly reports an accurate account of the attendance of pupils, of text-books used and branches taught, and such other statistics as may be required, and make due returns thereof to the board of county school commissioners at the end of each term; and no teacher shall be entitled to receive payment for services until the quarterly report, properly filled up and completed, shall be so returned. The quarterly reports shall be filed by the board of county school commissioners for the purpose of making the annual return to the State board of education.
