

shall observe the methods of the teachers and give him or her such practical suggestions as circumstances may prompt; he shall, whenever possible, attend public examinations and report quarterly in detail the result of his observances through the board of county school commissioners. In counties where the number of teachers shall exceed one hundred and seventy-five, the board of county school commissioners may, in their discretion, appoint an assistant county superintendent.

1868, art. 77, sec. 67. 1872, ch. 377.

73. The secretary and treasurer of the board of county school commissioners shall give bond to the State of Maryland with at least two securities to be approved by the said board, in such penal sum as the said board shall determine, with the condition that he will faithfully perform the duties of secretary and treasurer, pay over and apply all monies that shall come to his hands or care as treasurer to such persons and in such manner as said board may, under the provisions of this article, direct; and that he will keep a full account of all monies received, and paid by him, and all matters relating to the duties of his office, and preserve the same, and all vouchers relating thereto, and deliver up all books and vouchers relating to his office to his successor; which said bond, when executed, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court for the county. He shall be present at every meeting of the board, and may debate any question before them, but shall have no vote. He shall keep the minutes and conduct the correspondence, and shall duly file away and safely keep all letters, reports and other papers pertaining to the business of the board. He shall prepare and submit to the board for their adoption the annual report to the State board of education.

Howard Co. v. Hill, 88 Md. 119.

1890, ch. 511, sec. 67 A.

74. In lieu of the security provided for in the last preceding section, the said bond may have the security of any deposit or trust company, or other similar company duly incorporated under the laws of this State, and having by law the power to act as such security.

Ibid. sec. 68. 1872, ch. 377.

75. The person or persons acting as secretary, treasurer and examiner, under the provisions of this article, shall devote his or their whole time to public school business, and shall receive
