

State board of education, to the full capacity of the State normal schools, or normal departments, such other persons as may possess the requisite qualifications, who shall pay the sum of twenty-five dollars per session and be subject to the same rules and regulations as the other students.

1888, art. 77, sec. 75. 1872, ch. 377. 1904, ch. 584.

82. The State board of education shall prescribe the course of study for the State normal schools and normal departments receiving State aid, which shall be uniform as far as is practicable, and supervise such schools and departments in every particular not provided for in this article; they shall make arrangements for practice teaching, and may organize and maintain model and experimental schools as a part of the normal school, or normal department, when deemed best, in which students of the normal course shall have opportunity to teach and practice the modes of instruction and discipline inculcated in the normal schools, or normal departments.

Ibid. sec. 76. 1872, ch. 377. 1874, ch. 463. 1898, ch. 221. 1904, ch. 584.

83. The annual sum of twenty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated for the support of the Maryland State normal school located in the city of Baltimore; the annual sum of seven thousand dollars is hereby appropriated for the support of State normal school No. 2, located at Frostburg, and the annual sum of forty-five hundred dollars is hereby appropriated for the support of the normal department of Washington college, located at Chestertown—these appropriations to be paid in quarterly instalments by the treasurer, on the warrant of the comptroller, to the State board of education, and to be applied to the payment of teachers' salaries, clerical assistance, the purchase of school apparatus, text-books, fuel, stationery, light and other necessary expenses in maintaining such schools and normal departments; a further sum of one thousand dollars annually for repairs is hereby appropriated for the Maryland State normal school of Baltimore.

Ibid. sec. 77. 1872, ch. 377. 1904, ch. 584.

84. All donations or bequests of money or personal property, and all grants or devises of lands for the benefit of any State normal school or normal department shall be held in trust by the State board of education.
