

board of county commissioners, and filled in the manner as original appointments.

1898, ch. 515, sec. 6. 1902, ch. 367, sec. 7.

100. Said directors shall, immediately after their appointment, meet at the call of the county commissioners and organize by the election of a president and vice-president, secretary and treasurer. The treasurer so elected shall be required to give bond for the faithful performance of his trust in such sum as said library board shall determine; the said bond to be approved by the said library board. Directors shall receive no compensation; they shall make and adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations not inconsistent with this sub-title for their own guidance and for the government of the libraries and reading rooms as may be expedient. They shall have exclusive control of the expenditure of all moneys collected to the credit of the library fund under this sub-title, and of the constitution of any library building, and of the supervision, care and custody of the grounds, rooms or buildings constructed, leased or set apart for that purpose; and they shall have power to purchase or lease grounds, to occupy, lease or erect an appropriate building or buildings for the use of said library, appoint a suitable librarian and suitable assistants, and shall have power to fix the compensation of such appointees and to remove them if unsatisfactory, and shall in general carry out the spirit and intent of this sub-title in establishing and maintaining public libraries and reading rooms.

Ibid sec. 7. Ibid. sec. 8.

101. All moneys collected for such libraries and reading rooms by the county commissioners or governing boards of incorporated towns, as hereinabove provided, shall be deposited in the treasury of said county commissioners and of the said incorporated towns, respectively, to the credit of the library fund, and shall be kept separate and apart from other moneys of such boards of county commissioners and governing boards of incorporated towns, and paid over to the treasurer of the library board upon the demand of the board through properly authenticated vouchers.

Ibid sec. 8. Ibid. sec. 9

102. Every library and reading room established under this sub-title shall be forever free to the use of the inhabitants of the county, town or city where it is located; subject, however, to
