Chapter 19. Sources of Income.

1888, art. 77, sec. 100. 1872, ch. 377. 1904, ch. 584.

128. A State tax of fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars of taxable property throughout the State shall be levied annually for the support of free public schools, which tax shall be collected at the same time and by the same agents as the general State levy, and shall be paid into the treasury of the State, to be distributed by the treasurer to the board of school commissioners of the city of Baltimore and the several counties.

Baltimore City v. Lyman, 92 Md. 610.

Ibid. sec. 101. 1872, ch. 377.

129. The treasurer, on the warrant of the comptroller, shall pay to each of the counties and the city of Baltimore the proportion of the free school fund to which such city or county is entitled under the apportionment to be made by the comptroller, as hereinafter provided; and he shall pay the same to the treasurer of the board of school commissioners of Baltimore city and the several counties; and the several colleges and academies shall respectively receive the donations granted to them by any laws or resolutions of the general assembly, subject to the conditions annexed thereto.

Ibid. sec. 102. 1872, ch. 377. 1902, ch. 306.

130. As soon as the comptroller shall have received from the city of Baltimore and the several counties returns of the amount of the State school tax levied in each county and the city of Baltimore, he shall immediately thereafter apportion the amount of the whole levy to the several counties and the city of Baltimore in proportion to their respective population between the ages of five and twenty years.

Ibid. sec. 103. 1872, ch. 377. 1904, ch. 584.

131. On the first day of January, the fifteenth day of March, the fifteenth day of June, and the first day of October, in each year, the comptroller shall apportion the amount of school tax received by the treasurer among the several counties and the city of Baltimore, in proportion to the whole amount apportioned to each by the comptroller; and he shall notify the State board of education and the treasurer of the several
